

The East Metro Crime Prevention Coalition presents...
 Transforming the School Safety Paradigm:
 Preventing Daily Disruptions from Becoming Headline-Making Tragedies

Creating a Healthy School Environment
 Making Meaningful Connections with Youth
 Importance of Data Sharing
 Lessons Learned from Red Lake
 The Ana Grace Project

Keynote Nelba
 Marquez-Greene

Nelba is the mother of Ana Grace, a first grader who perished in the Sandy Hook School shooting in Newtown, CT. She will share how what each of us can do so that Love Wins.

Who should attend this powerful training?

Professionals in:

- Chemical Health
- Corrections/Courts
- Education
- Faith
- Law Enforcement
- Mental Health
- Prosecution
- Social Services
- Youth Services

5 POST Credits and Certificates of Attendance provided

Wednesday, October 2, 2019
8:30AM—3:00PM
Lake Elmo Inn Event Center
3712 Layton Avenue North, Lake Elmo
 Light morning refreshments—boxed lunch provided

Registration is required
Deadline is September 23, 2019
Sign-up online at: Training Registration

(If issues with the link go to <http://www.co.washington.mn.us>
 Washington County Attorney's Office (under Training)

Questions? Contact: Monica.Jensen@co.dakota.mn.us (651-438-4440)