ARTICLE 7 EMPLOYEE RIGHTS - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

7.1 Definition of a Grievance

A grievance is defined as a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation or application of the specific terms and conditions of this Agreement.

7.2 Union Representatives

The Employer will recognize representatives designated by the Union as the grievance representatives of the bargaining unit having the duties and responsibilities established by this Article. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of such Union representatives and of their successors when so designated as provided by 6.2 of this Agreement.

7.3 Processing of a Grievance

It is recognized and accepted by the Union and the Employer that the processing of grievances as hereinafter provided is limited by the job duties and responsibilities of the employees and shall therefore be accomplished during normal working hours only when consistent with such employee duties and responsibilities. The aggrieved employee and a Union representative shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time without loss of pay when a grievance is investigated and presented to the Employer during normal working hours provided that the Employee and the Union representative have notified and received the approval of the designated supervisor who has determined that such absence is reasonable and would not be detrimental to the work programs of the Employer.

7.4 Procedure

Grievances, as defined by Section 7.2, shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure:

Step 1. An employee claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, within twenty-one (21) calendar days after such alleged violation has occurred, present such grievance to the employee's supervisor as designated by the Employer. The Employer-designated representative will discuss and give an answer to such Step 1 grievance within ten (10) calendar days after receipt. A grievance not resolved in Step 1 and appealed to Step 2 shall be placed in writing setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated, the remedy requested, and shall be appealed to Step 2 within ten (10) calendar days after the Employer-designated representative's final answer in Step 1. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 2 by the Union within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

Step 2. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the Employer-designated Step 2 representative. The Employer designated representative shall give the Union the Employer's Step 2 answer in writing within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of

ARTICLE 7 EMPLOYEE RIGHTS - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (Continued)

A grievance not resolved in Step 3 may be appealed to Step 4 within ten (10) calendar days following the Employer-designated representative's final answer in Step 3. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 4 by the Union within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

Step 4. A grievance unresolved in Step 3 and appealed to Step 4 by the Union shall be submitted to arbitration subject to the provisions of the Public Employment Labor Relations Act of 1971, as amended. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by the Public Employment Relations Board.

7.5 Arbitrator's Authority.

- A. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to, or subtract from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the Employer and the Union, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.
- B. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement and to the facts of the grievance presented.
- C. The fee and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings the cost shall be shared equally.

7.6 Waiver

If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed to extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union in each step.

- 9.3 A reduction of work force shall be accomplished on the basis of seniority in the classification of Chief Correctional Officer. Employees shall be recalled from layoff on the basis of seniority in the classification of Chief Correctional Officer. The employer shall mail, by certified mail, notice to the employee who shall have five (5) calendar days from the date of mailing of such notice to accept re-employment. If written acceptance is not received by the Human Resources Department within such five (5) calendar day period, it shall constitute a waiver on the part of the employee to any further rights of employment or reinstatement. It is the obligation of each employee to ensure that his or her current address is on file with the employer. An employee on layoff shall have an opportunity to return to work within two (2) years of the time of layoff before any new employee is hired.

LELS* 527 NW2d 821 (Minn. 1995); and *McGrath v. - 13.5 Employees expressly assigned by the Sheriff or his or her designee to a vacant Undersheriff position for one (1) regularly scheduled shift or more shall be paid for the entire period at the rate appropriate to the assignment. The rate of pay will be set in the same manner followed for regular promotions. There is no presumption of assignment if an Undersheriff is absent.

- 17.4 To be eligible for sick leave payment, an employee must notify the department head or designee prior to the starting time of the employee's scheduled shift. This notice may be waived if the department head determines that the employee could not reasonably be expected to comply with this requirement because of circumstances beyond the control of the employee. This definition is: a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis, who is either under age 18 or age 18 or older and incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.

The department may require the employee to exhaust all paid leave prior to using unpaid leave. In no case shall the department be required to allow the employee to take a combination of paid and unpaid leave greater than twelve (12) weeks in any year under the FMLA.

FMLA time taken under Article 18.11 will count against time allowed under Article 18.12.
- 18.13 The application of the provisions of Article 18.11 and 18.12 will run concurrently with all other applicable paid and unpaid leave provisions of this agreement, where they apply to the same circumstances as do Articles 18.11 and 18.12.
