Energizing Voters and

Connecting Citizens to Candidates in Saint Paul’s 1-9

Pol1914
University of Minnesota-Twin Cities
December 11, 2018
The project on which this presentation is based was completed in collaboration with Ramsey County as part of the 2018–2019 Resilient Communities Project (RCP) partnership. RCP is a program at the University of Minnesota’s Center for Urban and Regional Affairs (CURA) that connects University faculty and students with Minnesota communities to address strategic projects that advance local resilience and sustainability.

The contents of this report represent the views of the authors, and do not necessarily reflect those of RCP, CURA, the Regents of the University of Minnesota, or Ramsey County.

This publication may be available in alternate formats upon request.

Resilient Communities Project
University of Minnesota
330 HHHSPA
301 — 19th Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455
Phone: (612) 625-7501
E-mail: rcp@umn.edu
Web site: http://www.rcp.umn.edu

The University of Minnesota is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its programs, facilities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, or sexual orientation.
The Challenge

Offer new ideas on voter engagement in Ramsey County

Evidence-based recommendations

Practical, effective, and do-able suggestions
Understanding the Issues and Context

Review of literature on voter engagement (youth voting)

Familiarity with demographics in 1-9

Conversations with voter-engagement activists

Conversations with service providers and recipients

On-campus interviews with students
Polling Voters in 1-9

Exit polls administered at Jackson Elementary (204 respondents):

- Important factors in voting decisions
- Media use
- Why friends and family members did not vote
- Demographic data
- Open-ended responses

Findings are most relevant to young residents and residents of color
Overview of Key Suggestions

Civic education (not just in school)

Better connections between residents and the candidates and issues

Harness the power of social media

Bringing residents’ voices into the equation