

RAMSEY COUNTY LAW LIBRARY

HOUSING AND CONCILIATION
COURT CLINIC

CONTACT

asklawlibrarian@co.ramsey.mn.
us

(651) 266 8391

www.ramseycounty.us/
lawlibrary

15 Kellogg Blvd W.
St. Paul, MN 55102

NEXT STEPS

After speaking with the attorney, at the clinic, you might need more information to prepare for your case. Feel free to ask the attorney for pertinent statutes or forms you should know about. If you need to contact the courts, the law library, or an attorney referral service, the information is provided for you on this page.

FORMS

HTTP://WWW.MNCOURTS.GOV/GETFORMS.ASPX
Forms for Conciliation Court and Housing Court can be found on the MN Courts website.

ATTORNEYS AND LEGAL AID

- Homeline (Tenant's advocacy) Metro: (612) 728-5767; Outstate: 1 (866)-866-3546
- Minnesota Multi Housing Association (for landlords and tenants) - (952) 858-8222
- MLAO (MN Legal Advice Online) - www.mnlegaladvice.org
- Southern Minnesota Regional Legal Services - (651) 222-5863.
- Volunteer Lawyers Network - (612) 752-6677 SMRLS and VLN also provide advice before first appearances in Housing Court for those who income qualify.

COUNTY AND STATE RESOURCES

Ramsey County District Court

Housing Court/Conciliation Court: (651) 266-8253
Court Records: (651) 266-8237

Ramsey County Law Library: (651) 266-8391

Minnesota State Law Library: (651) 297-7651

MN Courts Self-Help Call-Center: (651) 435-6535

MEDIATION

Some parties may wish to try to mediate their disputes to create agreements, reduce conflict, and avoid going to court. One service is the Dispute Resolution Center in St. Paul (651-292-7791; <http://disputeresolutioncenter.org>). Other mediators are available on the state court website: <http://www.mncourts.gov/?page=317>

STATUTES AND COURT RULES

You may wish to obtain copies of and refer to the following statutes, court rules, or cases: _____

NOTES