

Representing yourself in Ramsey County Housing or Conciliation Court? Need help getting started? Need assistance with filling out the required forms? Need to talk briefly with an attorney about your questions or concerns?

Volunteer attorneys and law students will be available for brief consultation meetings to help prepare you to represent yourself in housing or conciliation court. Though this clinic will not provide you with full representation, it will give you many of the tools you will need to more competently represent yourself.

Tuesdays, 1:00-4:00 p.m.

Ramsey County Courthouse Law Library
15 Kellogg Blvd. W., St. Paul
18th Floor

NEW in September 2018
Sign In Starts at 12:30 PM

Please note our sign-in process has changed. A drawing will occur at 12:30 PM to assign individuals a slot on our clinic schedule. Those arriving after 12:30 will sign in for the slots still open after the drawing. Please call the library for further information.
