

Get COVID-19 Treatment through Telehealth Program

Persons in Minnesota who have tested positive for COVID-19 can receive free COVID-19 medications through a telehealth program provided by the Minnesota Department of Health and Cue Health.

You may be eligible for COVID-19 medications if you have tested positive for COVID-19 and your symptoms have started within the last five days.

This program can be used no matter where you got tested, including if you used an at-home test.

If you test positive, get treatment in 3 easy steps

Step 1

Choose website, mobile app, or phone call to set up your profile

Step 2

Answer a few questions about your health and join a video chat to discuss treatment options with a health care provider

Step 3

Get personalized care with prescription delivery or pharmacy pick up

Health insurance is not required to receive treatment and getting care is fast and easy. This service is available at no cost from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. (CST), seven days a week.

You can access care any of the following ways:
