A. License

The County grants the Subscriber a nonexclusive, nontransferable, limited license to access certain Property Records and Revenue databases during the term of this Agreement. This software access license includes the right to view and print insubstantial portions of data for the sole use of the Subscriber and does not grant the Subscriber the right to store or download any of the County's data. The Subscriber may not create additional copies of material printed from the County's database and may not distribute materials gained from the County's database to third parties without the prior written approval of the County.

B. Limitation of License

Neither the data nor any portion thereof may be copied, downloaded, stored, published, transmitted, transferred, sold or otherwise used, in any forms or means, except (1) as expressly permitted herein; (2) with the County's prior written permission; or (3) if not otherwise expressly prohibited by this Agreement, as allowed by the Fair Use Provision of the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 107, and the Minnesota Data Practices Act, Minn. Stat. Ch. 13. Subscriber shall not download nor store the County's data in a searchable database except as provided by the terms of this Agreement. Subscriber shall not sell or license County's data (including printouts of the County's data) to third parties or use substantial portions of the County's database as material offered for sale or license. The County acknowledges that the subscriber's "regular course of business" includes using the information provided by the County in the preparation of title searches, title work, title abstracts, and title insurance; all of which will be prepared and/or furnished for resale to the subscriber's customers.

C. Rights and Data

Except for the license granted herein, all rights, title, and interest in data, and all languages, formats, and media throughout the world, including all copyrights therein, are and shall continue to be the exclusive property of the County.

D. County Charges

Charges payable by the Subscriber for access to and use of the County's databases described in this Agreement are available in writing or online in the document, "Fees for Internet Access to Recorded Documents". E. Disclaimer of Warranties and Limitation of Liability

The County's goods and services provided pursuant to this Agreement are provided "as is," without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including, but not limited to, the warranties of performance, merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

Subscriber's exclusive remedy and the County's entire liability hereunder, if any, for any claim(s) for damages relating to the County's databases or data which are made against them, individually, or jointly, whether based in contract or negligence, shall be limited to the amount of database access charges paid by the Subscriber relative to the period of occurrence of the events which are the basis of the claim(s); provided, however, that the County shall have no liability whatsoever to the Subscriber for any claim(s) relating in any way to (1) Subscriber's inability or failure to perform legal, professional, or other research or related work or to perform such work properly or completely, even if assisted by the County; or (2) any lost profits or other consequential, exemplary, incidental, indirect or special damages relating in whole or in part to the Subscriber's rights hereunder or use of, or inability to use, the County's databases or data, even if the County has been advised of the possibility of such damages. Further, the County shall have no liability whatsoever to the Subscriber for any claim(s) relating in any way to any database or data.

G. Access

The County shall maintain the right to deny, postpone, or cancel access at any time and without prior notice. Such termination of access will not constitute a material breach of this Agreement if the customer's access is reinstated within a reasonable period of time.
