“Hot Dog with a Deputy”

A summer evening initiative to build community connections with the citizens we serve

The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office will be visiting community parks on summer evenings with a variety of squad cars and equipment, including a restored food trailer once used by the Salvation Army.

Sheriff staff will be on hand to interact with and get to know neighborhood residents, aided with the draw of hot dogs, chips, bottled water and frozen fun pops served FREE of charge, thanks to a generous donation from the Ramsey County Sheriff's Foundation.

The Ramsey County Sheriff's Office “Hot Dog with a Deputy” events will take place from 5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. on the following nights:

- Tue, 6/21, Berwood Park, 780 Berwood Ave, Vadnais Heights
