

MISSING

Reward Offered

Michelle Newell, age 45, of Vadnais Heights, Minnesota
Missing since August 29, 2016

Farmers in eastern North and South Dakota are being asked to check their outbuildings, hog pens and other livestock enclosures for any signs of human remains.

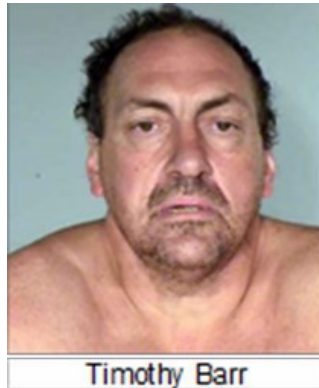

The Sheriff's Offices of Cass County, North Dakota, and Ramsey County, Minnesota, seek the public's help with locating the body of Michelle Newell.

45-year-old Michelle Newell of Vadnais Heights was last seen on August 30th in Cass County, ND, and is now presumed dead. Authorities have identified Timothy Barr, of Saint Paul, MN, as a primary suspect in her death.

Barr was seen in Cass County, ND on 8/30/16 and 8/31/16. Authorities believe Newell's remains may have been placed in or near a farm building or within the confines of a livestock pen.

The Cass County ND and Ramsey County MN Sheriff's Offices are requesting those who live in areas east of Jamestown, ND, and Aberdeen, SD to check their out buildings, barns, and livestock enclosures for anything suspicious.

A reward of up to $1,000 is being offered for information that leads to the discovery of Michelle's remains.
